Dear Tommy:

It was so thoughtful of you to write regarding the Preacher's Workshop and presentation. I appreciate so much getting to see you for a few minutes even though we didn't have an opportunity for an indepth conversation. I look forward to that at some future date.

Your letter meant a great deal to me. Thank you for taking the time to write. I hope that I can reciprocate some future time. Keep up the good work with the Bible Chair. From all I hear, God is blessing you with great success and effectiveness in your ministry there.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear John,

I want to express to you my deepest appreciation for the part you gave in stimulating "our social responsibilities." I am indebted to your insight as displayed through your sincere, earnest, strong conviction to the scriptures, as well as the "servant of the Lord" spirit of your personality.

I personally felt that, because we have often emphasized "no place for theology," the total-overall view bringing the whole of the Bible to bear on any and every passage of text was exciting, meaningful, and challenging.

As simply a brother in Christ with great respect and love for your attitude toward "TRUTH" and the Lordship of Jesus, I wish to say that I am thankful to my Father for the opportunity to associate in fellowship with a Christ-living brother.

In Him,

Tommy
